Rob,

We have met and conferred numerous times. We have made several offers regarding documents. You've declined each one. We served objections long ago. You have not moved to compel. If you are not committing to taking Mr. Arum's deposition one time and one time only, we will need resolution of any outstanding document issues (to the extent you have not already waived) before the examination occurs. You have had months to get that done and have chosen to wait. That was your prerogative but, having done so, you cannot force two depositions on a non-party.

Moreover, as I told you, I am in a jury trial in Seattle starting Monday and am unavailable for conferences/depositions until the conclusion, which I expect to be the first week of August.

David

David,

We accept your proposal of August 21st to proceed with Mr. Arum's deposition, but cannot accept your conditions as to the scope of the document production.

I suggest we schedule a meet and confer to discuss the document production. I am available Friday after 1 pm pacific time and Monday after 2 pm pacific to discuss.

Please advise as to your availability.

Thank you.

Regards,

Rob Maysey
